DETAILED ACTION

Claims pending 1 and 92.

Applicants have elected group I,

See below.

Applicants have elected Group I of the restriction

- I. Claim 1 in part, drawn to a compound of formula A wherein R1 is an aryl, R2 is ROalkyl or (R)2N-alkyl, R (S)-alkyl, (R)2Ncycloalkyl, (R)2N cycloalkyl or R5-cycloalkyl, R3 and R4 are H, alkyl or F or -OR, (R is a non hetero ring R5 is a phenyl or a thiophene classified in class 546 and various subclasses.

Applicants have not amended the claims to the elected group.

The restriction is made FINAL.

The rejection of claim 1 under 35 USC 102 over WO 9106297 and also WO 98 57972 has been withdrawn since applicants have amended the claims to indicate that their R5 phenyl is substituted.

However this leads to New Grounds of Rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 1625

Claim 1 and 92 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claim recites aryl however the definition in the specifications indicate that it can include hetero atoms groups that may include from zero to four heteroatoms, for example, benzene, pyrrole, furan, thiophene, imidazole, oxazole, thiazole, triazole, pyrazole, pyridine, pyrazine, pyridazine and pyrimidine, and the like. Those aryl groups having heteroatoms in the ring structure may also be referred to as "aryl heterocycles" or "heteroaromatics." The aromatic ring can be substituted at

The examiner included aryl to mean a non-hetero aromatic ring, the general acceptable meaning.

The claims do not clearly indicate this.

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claim 1 and 92 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for a substitution on the phenyl to be a fluorine, chlorine, and methoxy does not reasonably provide enablement for any and all substituent. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims.

In re Wands, 858 F.2d 731, 737, 8 USPQ2d 1400, 1404 (Fed. Cir. 1988).

Art Unit: 1625

There are many factors to be considered when determining whether there is sufficient evidence to support a determination that a disclosure does not satisfy the enablement requirement and whether any necessary experimentation is "undue". These factors include 1) the breadth of the claims, 2) the nature of the invention, 3) the state of the prior art, 4) the level of one of ordinary skill, 5) the level of predictability in the art, 6) the amount of direction provided by the inventor, 7) the existence of working examples, and 8) the quantity of experimentation needed to make or use the invention based on the content of the disclosure.

The breadth of the claim with the substituents is unknown.

The nature of the invention is highly specific since it is drawn to compounds for pharmaceutical use, and the art is highly unpredictable. The prior art compounds have hydrogen substituents and are used as pharmaceuticals, hence the art is unpredictable. The direction provided by the applicant is limited to just a few substituent such as chlorine fluorine and methoxy in its working examples. Thus the quantity of experimentation is very high based on the applicant's disclosure and hence would require an undue amount of experimentation.

Conclusion

Claims 1 and 92 are not allowable.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Art Unit: 1625
